Fairness in Authority Conflict Is Demanded

Housing Authority Answers Report Of Regional PHA

Criticism of the Contra Costa Housing Authority in a report by the Public Housing Administration was termed "a personal opinion" on the part of the investigator by officials of the authority Tuesday in Martinez.

Warren Harrold, executive director, Al Hills, comptroller and A. S. Johnson, administrative officer, agreed that the report of the PHA was biased and Turner has since been replaced as the investigative officer of the Contra Costa Authority.

MAIN POINTS in Turner's criticism were:

1. No formal reply to a report made by the PHA was made by the CCHA.
2. Personal property inventories were not reconciled.
3. Internal dissension, friction between management and maintenance personnel.
4. Costs are high.
5. Personnel are overly charged with work and it is impossible to get objective answers to key questions.
6. Insufficient delegation of authority.
7. Work order system inadequate.
8. Too many vehicles.

HAROLD noted that most of the dissension which had been reported by Turner was a thing of the past.

In a formal reply to the PHA, Ronald A. Howard, resigned executive director who has been indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of converting government property for personal use stated:

"Since the abolishment of the position of maintenance superintendent we have been able for the first time in many years to set up cooperative work agreement between management and maintenance activities and personnel. We are pulling as a team to get the best possible results with the least expense. We feel certain that our costs will be reflected by such cooperation."

"Under this agreement, the project managers have a much more to say over maintenance than in the past. The maintenance foreman is constantly in touch with various housing managers in order to determine what maintenance work must be done and to offer suggestions."

"WE BELIEVE that as soon as our setup is complete we will be in a position to improve our procurement system, inasmuch as we can then reduce the frequency of purchasing as well as to purchase larger quantities at better prices," Howard wrote.

In answer to other statements by the PHA, the CCHA director noted:

"The personnel of your authority are overly charged with emotion and it is impossible in a great many cases to obtain objective answers to key questions," Turner noted in his report to Melville.

Melville, in turn, forwarded the report to Gerould Gill, chairman of the Contra Costa Housing Authority Commissioners.

Complaints in the report were answered at the direction of the commissioners by Ronald A. Howard, at that time executive director of the Contra Costa Housing Authority.

Howard has been indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of converting government property to personal use and will be tried in Federal Court San Francisco, February 3.

He has pleaded not guilty to the federal grand jury indictment. The indictment was brought about by charges of Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance superintendent of the authority.

Turner in his report noted that the authority should use a different system of work orders and should seek contractual agreements which independent firms to cut down on maintenance costs.

Authority officials informed the Sun that the report of Turner was based on his personal opinions and that the present purchase system is being improved upon and some contractual agreements are used in some cases.

Turner noted that there was insufficient delegation of authority and personnel did not know their duties. He urged the implementation of some type of training program in the authority.

The report noted that lack of control over small inventory type items such as paint, tools etc. A control program has been established, according to high ranking authority personnel.

Friction in County Housing Authority Slammed by PHA

Dissension and inability to obtain answers to key questions from the Contra Costa Housing Authority were hit in the Third Annual Management Review of the Public Housing Administration, The Sun learned Tuesday in Martinez.

The report of J. G. Melville, regional director of the PHA in San Francisco was prepared by J. Hugh Turner after investigation into the operations of the authority.

Main points listed in the report were the excess number of cars at the disposal of the Contra Costa Authority; lack of personal property control and friction between management and maintenance personnel.

"The personnel of your authority are overly charged with emotion and it is impossible in a great many cases to obtain objective answers to key questions," Turner noted in his report to Melville.

Melville, in turn, forwarded the report to Gerould Gill, chairman of the Contra Costa Housing Authority Commissioners.

Complaints in the report were answered at the direction of the commissioners by Ronald A. Howard, at that time executive director of the Contra Costa Housing Authority.

Howard has been indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of converting government property to personal use and will be tried in Federal Court San Francisco, February 3.

Connolly Seeks WC Judgeship

Walnut Creek Mayor John Connolly has filed an application to take an examination on February 1, qualifying him to run for the post of judge, Walnut Creek Judicial District.

The post has been held by Judge Clifford Thomson for 25 years. He recently announced his plans to retire.

Connolly has been a California Highway Patrol officer since 1938, with four years leave during World War II for work in a war plant.

Supervisor Buchanan Says True Facts Should be Told

Fairness in personnel matters and an investigation into charges made against the Contra Costa Housing Authority were urged yesterday by Supervisor W. G. "Bud" Buchanan of Pittsburg.

The Sun learned in an interview with Buchanan in Colfax that he has asked for a complete explanation for the dismissal of "Pete" Peterson, long time foreman of the Authority.

IN A PRIVATE discussion between the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and the Commissioners of the Contra Costa Housing Authority "a very unsatisfactory report concerning the discharge" was made by Ronald A. Howard, resigned executive director, who has been indicted by a federal grand jury, said Buchanan.

"There are a great many discrepancies in the stories of the dismissal of Peterson and other long time employees of the Authority and I want to know the real facts. I think that a formal letter of the charges against Peterson and other employees should be brought before the supervisors. I want to see fairness done. I am concerned," Buchanan stated.

THE AUTHORITY claims that Peterson was dismissed for budgetary reasons. Peterson states he was fired for personal reasons.

Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance superintendent of the authority, claims he was fired for "telling all he knew" to a federal investigator. The authority states his position was abolished as an economy measure.

The authority has stated reportedly that both Peterson and Anthon were trouble makers and were part of the same clique.

THE TWO OUSTED officials state "they didn't get along together."

The authority states that Peterson was offered a job as a laborer since his position was abolished. Peterson says he received his termination check in the mail and this indicated to him he was "canned."

Peterson noted he would have accepted the lesser position. The authority states he refused and walked out.

"I'M NOT after any scalps in this matter, but I do think the entire matter should be clarified for the individuals involved as well as for the public," Buchanan commented.

"Whether the grand jury is still interested in all these allegations I don't know, but for my own peace of mind, I do want some answers that make sense," he stated.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen of the Second District informed The Sun that charges of "irregularities" had been brought to his attention and he had given them considerable consideration and had kept a close eye on the federal investigations which have partly terminated in the indictment against Howard.

FEDERAL INVESTIGATORS have stated that the indictment against Howard was due in part to the charges made by Anthon.

"Gerould Gill, chairman of the commission of the Housing Authority is my appointment and for many years he has done an outstanding job. I really want to find out what all the bickering is about and get to the bottom of the entire affair," said Buchanan.

"SOME PROGRESS has been accomplished in the reduction of costs by the authority through the abolishment of the position of maintenance superintendent and other maintenance costs are being studied with various economies planned," said Harrold.

Johnson and Harrold explained that Contra Costa was a "very hard labor county" and the authority could not hire one man to take care of various operations. Through union contracts it must hire plumbers for plumbing jobs, carpenters for carpentry etc.

"IN SOME PORTIONS of the State, authorities can hire one man to do a million and one jobs OK," said Johnson. He noted that if this system of hiring were permitted it would save a great deal of money.

John stated that the work order system which is used by the authority is just as good and serves the same purpose as the system suggested by the PHA. "It's six of one half dozen of another as far as which one of the systems is better," said Johnson.

Turner complained of the excess number of cars and trucks which were operated by the authority. 29. The number of vehicles has been cut down to 26 now, said Johnson.

"The Contra Costa Housing Authority, is unique inasmuch as it is spread out over most of the county. In most authorities in the state they cover just a few square miles. The Contra Costa Authority is spread out and it takes a great deal of time getting from one job to another which does increase our costs," said Johnson.

Pyramiders Told To 'Cease, Desist'

To Ignore State Order May Lead to Prosecution

A top state government officer, Assistant State Commissioner of Corporations Donald A. Pearce, announced today that he has sent "cease and desist" orders to a number of pyramid clubbers in the central county area.

If these orders are not obeyed, the normal procedure then would be for the state to seek injunctions against the persons involved, and if necessary, order "misdemeanor arrests," according to Clarence Linn, assistant state attorney general who was asked to comment on Pearce's statement.

This intervention by the state came at the same time that a rising storm of protests were being registered against Contra Costa County District Attorney Francis Collins' ruling that pyramid games are lotteries and therefore illegal.

THE OPINION, published last week in The Sun, brought a flood of angry phone calls to the district attorney's office in Martinez and to The Sun offices.

Collins held to his opinion. Persons involved in pyramids were somewhat mollified by a later statement that there would be no prosecutions without the signing of a complaint. No complaints have been received as yet by Collins' office.

However, Assistant Commissioner of Corporations Pearce announced that his office has the power to investigate pyramid clubs without the filing of a formal complaint by a private citizen, and it is doing so.

SOURCES WITHIN the county have supplied him with a list of names of people involved in pyramid activities.

The persons first contacted have been told to "desist and refrain from promoting, offering memberships, making collections in any enterprise or scheme commonly known as Pyramid Club without first obtaining a permit from the State Commissioner of Corporations."

It is generally considered nearly impossible for a Pyramid Club to obtain such a permit, Linn commented later.

Whether this action by the state will halt pyramiding in the county is still a question.

THE DISTRICT attorney's ruling slowed down the processing of adding new members to thousands of pyramids, but many other people have said that they are going ahead anyway, since Collins' opinion differed with those of private attorneys.

Pyramids had tough going in official circles even before the state announcement.

Walnut Creek Police Chief Leigh Brilliant and Concord Police Chief Ron Orin said earlier that they consider pyramids illegal, though prosecutions would have to wait on the filing of complaints.

Orin added that somehow some person had put his name at the top of a pyramid list. "I've never taken part in any of these things," he said.

SAN PABLO Police Chief Walter Pedretti and San Pablo Judge Wilson Locke also denied that they in any way sanctioned pyramid clubs.

Their problem was like Orin's, Pedretti said. "My name and that of Judge Wilson have gotten mixed up in this thing. He warned against entering a pyramid."

Contra Costa Deputy District Attorney David Levy, who spoke for Collins in the original pronouncement of illegality, said this week, "Some people have called us and said they enjoy the pyramid clubs because they are making a lot of new friends."

He added, "But the same thing can be said about a dice game or poker game, and that doesn't make it legal. Many things enjoyable to some of the public are immoral, illegal or fattening."

HE REPEATED his statement of last week. "The state law passed in 1872 is that any scheme for the disposal or distribution of property by chance is a lottery."

What about the person who has collected money from a pyramid? Should he declare it on his income tax, even though the money is gained through an illegal activity?

Assistant Attorney General Linn's answer was yes. Tax returns are considered confidential, and are not used as a basis of prosecution in a case of this sort. People like gamblers get into trouble usually when they fail to declare their earnings, Linn said.

HOW MANY people will be affected by the state ruling is difficult to guess—tens of thousands in California, probably.

It will affect people in "high places" and "lower" people in financial troubles, who thought this was a way out.

Reportedly, the pyramids have already provided money for people on relief, paid a boy's way numerous mortgages.

Under the system, a person gets two people, who get two more people to pay $4 and join the pyramid. And so forth.

The person at the top of the completed pyramid gets all the $4 contributions from the 1024 "guests" at the bottom, if the pyramid works perfectly. Of course, it never works perfectly.

A source of argument is the question whether the need for newcomers would produce a "saturation point" in the county.

Clarke, Block Named State's Top Young Men

L. Jack Block of 101 Meadow View Road, Orinda, and Thomas Clarke of 710 Camino Amigo, Danville, were among five men named this week as California's Outstanding Young Men of 1957.

They will be honored Wednesday at a banquet to be held in the Oakland Auditorium under the sponsorship of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Oakland City Council and Alameda County Board of Supervisors are cooperating in making arrangements.

BLOCK was named San Francisco's Outstanding Young Man last year. He is a graduate of Piedmont High School and the University of California.

He was nominated for the award by the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce for his outstanding work with the blind and the Salvation Army.

Married and the father of four children, he has been responsible for raising more than $100,000 for the complete financing of a rehabilitation hotel for men of San Francisco's "Skid Row."

The hotel is at 230 4th Street and is known as The James House.

THE 34-YEAR-OLD Orinda resident has served on the board of the San Francisco Center for the Blind and for years has been a leader in stimulating the growth of the center.

He was appointed by San Francisco Mayor George Christopher chairman of the Mayor's Blind Rehabilitation Committee.

A stock broker, Block also has done educational work in conjunction with the public relations committee of the Pacific Coast Exchange, helping to educate the public to a better understanding of the operations of the exchange.

Among the awards he has won for his civic work is the Lions International Service Award for the part he played in Operations Philippines agricultural project.

CLARKE was named Walnut Creek's Outstanding Young Man for 1956 and has been a leader of the Handicapped Boy Scout movement in California.

He formed the Walnut Creek Handicapped Boy Scout Troop four years ago and has been its scoutmaster since.

His interest in this field led to his appointment as chairman of the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce's Handicapped Boy Scout program.

Since then, due largely to Clarke's efforts, Handicapped Boy Scouting has become a part of the Montgomery Ward's Youth Fitness Program.

MUCH OF CLARKE's civic work has developed through his association with the Walnut Creek Junior Chamber of Commerce.

During his nearly six years as a junior chamber member, he has held the offices of state director and president, and he was responsible for the Pension of the Danville Jaycee Club.

During his year as president, he guided his organization to the Geisenbier Memorial Sweepstakes Award, which is presented to the outstanding local junior chapter in California.

Owner of a clothing store in Danville, Clarke has also been active as a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club and the Retail Credit Association.

HE IS A Sunday School teacher and an active member of the San Ramon Valley Congregational Church.

Men of Year To Be Feted Tomorrow

Orinda will honor several men tomorrow night.

At a dinner gathering at the Orinda Willows, sponsored by the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce in association with The Sun, the following special recognitions will be made:

1. The Orinda Jaycees will award a plaque to Professor Robert Karplus as Orinda's Outstanding Young Man of the Year. Presentation will be by Jim Dana, local Jaycee president. The Outstanding Young Man award is sponsored by the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

2. The Orinda Sun will award a certificate to Dr. George T. Prlain, Orinda Man of the Year in the annual award sponsored by The Sun. Presentation will be by Herman Silverman, editor and publisher of the paper.

3. The Orinda Fire Board will give certificates of merit to six Orinda physicians for the assistance they have rendered Orinda firemen in emergency situations. Zach Montgomery, fire board president, will present the certificates to Drs. Prlain, J. M. Boulware, Paul A. Slattery, Frank A. Spencer, Carl Wellington Smith and Howard L. Konklin.

TICKETS, priced at $3.85 each, will be available at the Willows Saturday night, but Robert Wale, in charge of arrangements for the banquet, points out that they should be obtained in advance in order to avoid disappointment in case the attendance results in an early sellout.

They may be purchased in advance from Wale at his home, 104 Meadow View Road, Orinda, or at Al Baer's Village Shoe Shop, 21 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Guest speaker will be Joseph Sheaff, Orinda superintendent of schools.

THE MAIN COURSE at the dinner will be roast beef. Dancing will follow the banquet. The cocktail hour will start at 7 p.m. Dinner will be served at 8 p.m.

The physicians will be the guests of the Orinda fire commissioners as individuals, according to Montgomery.

The fire board president said that the Orinda Fire Department performs much "extra-curricular" activity, such as first aid and locating lost children. It is in some of these extra activities, as well as in actual fire situations, that the doctors "have given generously of their time and skill," he added.

Group Seeks EBMUD Land For Golf Club

Queries directed to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District on availability of sewer service for the acreage have disclosed tentative plans for purchase of East Bay Municipal Utility District land for a country club and subdivision purposes between Bear Creek Road and Upper Happy Valley Road.

The site—valley and hill land—lies generally east of the Sleepy Hollow section of Orinda.

The directors pointed out that subsequent sewer connection charges would be paid under Ordinance 24 at the time the additional property was connected.

WC Bypass Traffic Faces New Detour Monday Morning

Monday morning after the peak and weather permitting, the present intersection of Oakland Boulevard and Mt. Diablo Boulevard on Sign Route 24 between Oakland and Walnut Creek, will be closed.

At that time, a new signalized intersection which has been constructed approximately 500 feet easterly will be opened for the traffic previously using the Oakland Boulevard intersection.

Motorists are cautioned to observe the directional signs which will be in place for their guidance through this work.

Particular attention to this change should be paid by east-bound motorists on Mt. Diablo Boulevard who wish to turn left at the newly constructed intersection. These motorists should use the right hand lane of Mt. Diablo Boulevard as they will be routed over special lanes which have been constructed south of the present traveled way and will cross Mt. Diablo Boulevard at the newly constructed intersection.

Ouster Hearing Of Braumoeller Slated by State

The State Personnel Board has set March 19-21 for hearing on dismissal of State Narcotics Agent Ludwig Fred Braumoeller of Orinda who has been indicted on four counts of violations of the federal narcotics law.

(See Under The Sun column on Editorial Page.)

The Sun has taken reservations for the past two weeks and now the remaining seats will be given to the first 500 persons who arrive at the Moraga Campus Gym for the St. Mary's Fresno State clash on the hardwoods before game time at 8 p.m.

Anyone who has already received his or her reservation blank need not worry, a seat has been reserved by St. Mary's for that parent and his "guests" if they are seated by 8 p.m.

Clip the coupon in this week's Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun or Walnut Creek Sun and present it at the box office at St. Mary's with $1.25 for each adult and all the children will be admitted free of charge.

No more reservations for the game will be taken at any of The Sun offices.

It will be a good idea to get to St. Mary's early the evening of the 18th, since the top flight collegiate basketball to be offered by the St. Mary's and Fresno State athletics is almost certain to attract a large audience and the first 500 to arrive at the campus will be sure of getting seats.

Last year teams from Walnut Creek and Orinda played during the halftime of the First Annual Sun's Father and Children's Basketball night.

The program has been arranged in cooperation with St. Mary's College and the reservation holders have been saved "the best seats in the house" by Walt DeFaria, public relations director at the college.

Special Drive for Funds For Library Set to Roll

A special campaign to reach approximately 800 families—including those which have not heretofore contributed and those which have moved into the community within the past year and a half—will start next Friday and run for 11 days, through January 27, to raise additional money for the Orinda Library Building Fund. A briefing session for the volunteer canvassers will be held at the regular meeting of the Orinda Woman's Club at 8 p.m. Monday in the Glorietta School all-purpose room. Board OKs Initial Plans For Inland Valley School

Preliminary plans by the architectural firm of Anderson and Simonds of Oakland for the Inland Valley Elementary School were approved by the Orinda School Board at its meeting Monday night at the Pine Grove School. Orinda Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff later explained that the local school district will present the preliminary plans to the State Department of School House Planning for approval.

The architects will proceed with the working drawings, which are expected to be complete by around the beginning of May, according to Sheaff. "THEN WE'LL make application to the state of funds," Sheaff said. "If we're lucky we may get started with construction by the fall of this year, and the school would be open for classes by the fall of 1959. I'd say there's a remote possibility of that."

The Inland Valley Elementary School will be a kindergarten-through-sixth grade school. Being planned are two kindergarten rooms, six classrooms and administration quarters. OTHER school board actions Monday night included:

1. Acceptance of the bid of the American Seating Company of San Francisco for supplying 60 primary chairs.
2. Authorization for the firm of Matthews, Weeks and Johnson of Walnut Creek, certified public accountants, to set up records that would show the school district property and equipment.
3. AUTHORIZATION of filing of notice of completion of the chain link fence around the Pine Grove School playground, by the Pacific Fence Company.
4. Signing of an agreement with the Mt. Diablo Unified School District for the education of a cerebral palsy student from the Orinda district at the Shadelands School.
5. Receiving report, relayed by Sheaff, that the state apportionment to the Orinda School District was actually $12,734 more for the current school year than had been estimated. State apportionment is on the basis of average daily attendance and of transportation reimbursement.
6. Granting of maternity leave of absence, until the end of the present school year, to Mrs. Mary

Association's New Board to Start Monday

Six newly elected directors of the Orinda Association will take office Monday night. Together with holdover Directors Fred Twining, Art Flint and Norman Cunningham, they will constitute the 1958 board of the organization.

The new directors are Arthur A. Pedersen, Heber Smith, Donald Anderson, H. C. Booth, William Thornton White Jr., and Dr. Ralph C. Hall.

All except Dr. Hall have been elected for two-year terms; Dr. Hall will fill the unexpired one year of the directorship vacated by Dorothy Adie, who has moved to the Midwest.

Also on the 1958 board will be Gene Estes, outgoing president. As immediate past president he will be a director at large.

In addition to Estes, outgoing directors scheduled to be present Monday night at 7:30 at the Orinda School are Claire Ward, Robert Walpole, Marvin Baker and Holland DuBois.

Estes said yesterday that the Monday night session would commence with a meeting of the 1957 board—the outgoing and holdover directors.

AFTER VARIOUS reports, Estes will adjourn this meeting and will act as chairman protem while the 1958 board will elect a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

Then Estes will turn the chair over to the new president, and the

C of C Board to Suggest Names of Key Local Roads

As the result of last Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the chamber, a special meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce board will be held at noon next Tuesday at Casa Orinda, to wrestle with the problem of road-names.

President Maynard Buehler said last Tuesday that at next week's session the board will decide on recommendations to present to the next membership meeting of the Orinda chamber at noon January 21, also at Casa Orinda.

FAVORED at last Tuesday's meeting at Casa Orinda was a proposal by Secretary Clarence Betz that the new Orinda Village Bypass, now under construction, be called DeLaveaga Highway, in honor of the DeLaveaga family. Ramsay Underwood pointed out that in certain residential sec-all the way down to the Orinda Interchange, to be renamed Camino Pablo.

The local chamber members felt that the "old road" in Orinda, now called Orinda Highway, should have its own locally individual name.

However, Underwood later pointed to possible disadvantages of a name like Orinda Highway.

Homer W. Scott Funeral Held

Funeral services were held Monday at the McNary Chapel in Berkeley for Homer W. Scott, 44, who died January 2 at his home at 6 Camino del Cielo, Orinda. Dr. Vere V. Loper of the First Congregational Church, Berkeley, officiated.

Interment followed at Golden Gate National Cemetery. Mr. Scott was with the Army Air Force from July, 1943, to October, 1945.

For the past four years Mr. Scott was employed by the nationwide Wells Organization as a director of church fund-raising drives. Prior to that he worked for three different airlines, for about 15 years.

Mr. Scott and his family came to Orinda from Minneapolis six months ago. They formerly lived in Lafayette for three years and in Kensington for four years.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Doris Scott, and three children, Terry, Russell and Shelby, all of Orinda; a brother, George Scott of Dallas, and his mother, Mrs. Nellie Scott, and his sister, Mrs. Frances Ortgiesen, both of Dixon, Illinois.

Mr. Scott was born in Sterling, Illinois.

1958 board will start its work. Expected to be present Monday night for further discussion of his plan to build apartment buildings at the Pine Grove is Douglas S. Manuel of 550 Miner Road.

Young GOP Leaders to Be Named at Dance

The annual Contra Costa Young Republican dance for installation of newly elected officers will be held January 18 at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek, according to Thomas M. Howard of Orinda, dance general chairman.

Known as the Gay Old Party and Inaugural Ball, the event will bring together Young Republicans from throughout Contra Costa County for the combined party and inauguration.

Committee chairmen for the affair, named by Contra Costa Young Republican chairman Laurence P. Corbett of Walnut Creek, include Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Howard, arrangements; Mrs. Sam Squibb of Richmond, tickets; Joseph Zablocki of Orinda, invitations; Mrs. William R. Dorsey of Orinda, decorations, and William J. Bolce Jr. of Lafayette, publicity.

Jack Horner's orchestra will provide music for dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Midway during the evening the results of the mail balloting for 1958 officers will be announced, and an inaugural ceremony held for the victorious candidates. Hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Tickets for the Gay Old Party, priced at $3 a couple, may be obtained from the following ticket committee members:

Danville, Mrs. Richard Moulds; Lafayette, Mrs. Hans R. Beetz; Orinda, Joseph Longacre, Joseph Zablocki; Walnut Creek, Mrs. William Palmer.

McCoy is Top Salesman; Ingalls Heads Realtors

Ray McCoy of the Harlan Geldermann Realtors, Danville, was named 1957 Salesman of the Year, at the annual installation breakfast held by the Contra Costa County Real Estate Board, Monday at the El Nido.

McCoy was congratulated by Frank Curtis, the 1956 Salesman of the Year, and the first salesman to receive the honor.

Climax of the after-breakfast ceremonies was the induction of Al Ingalls as new board president, succeeding Jesse (Nick) Carter, and his officers and directors.

INGALLS IS with the Lafayette Realty Company.

His top officers are Bill Hayward, vice president; and George Nowak, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Louis Reark, Bill Anderson, Leo Smarsh, Harlan Geldermann, Mrs. Thelma Braley is Women's Division president.

After the oath was read by Barney Gilbert, CREA vice president for District 5, Ingalls said, "this meeting is to honor all the past presidents of the Board, from Frank Marshall to Nick Carter."

"Soon we will have a new building and it will give us the opportunity to do things we haven't been able to do."

"OUR JOB IS to serve members of our board and of other boards, but our biggest job is to serve the public."

"Many things must be done in the next year. We will need even greater cooperation from everyone in the board."

"I hope to have suggestions soon for the program for the coming year."

"There are many members with talent and experience who have not been called upon yet."

THIS NEXT YEAR will be one of improving business conditions, of opportunity, of broadening horizons and change. If each does his part, it can't help but be a success.

"The question is, What will you do? That will determine how your board goes. I have my challenge; this is your challenge," Ingalls said.

At the breakfast, Ingalls received a certificate in Real Estate, indicating completion of eight advance courses conducted by the University of California extension service. Only three or four other board members have earned this certificate, which requires lengthy outside study.

George Walker Tosses Hat In Race for WC Judgeship

George V. Walker of Lafayette, well-known attorney and retired Navy captain, this week announced his candidacy for the office of judge of the Justice Court of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

"I think the job should be full-time, because of the load of work and the number of cases pending," Walker said. "That is the way I would handle the job if I were elected. I would retire completely from law practice or any other business interest."

Walker pointed out that Judge Clifford Thomson, who has announced that he will not seek reelection, has been devoting full time to the post for the 24 years he has held it.

"TODAY IT IS more important than ever that the judge of the district devote his full time to the work," Walker stressed.

The Walnut Creek Judicial District embraces Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and part of Alamo. Walker will face other candidates in the June 3 primary election. If no one can duates receives a majority vote, the two highest will oppose each other in the November 4 general election.

Others who have announced their candidacy are Betsy Fitzgerald, Walnut Creek attorney, and Frederick C. Kracke, executive vice-president and legal counsel of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County.

"I FEEL THAT my varied and broad background of experience in human relations fits me for the position of judging the controversies of my fellow-man," Walker observed.

"I've been admitted to practice law in California for over 30 years and have spent about two-thirds of that time on active duty in the Navy and in commercial aviation."

Walker's law office is at 3557 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette. He lives with his wife, Dorothy, and two of their sons—Richard, 19, and Robert, 15—at 740 Glenside Circle, Lafayette. Their other son, George V. Walker II, 23, is now in the Army at Ford Ord. Richard is a freshman in engineering at the University of California. Robert is a sophomore at Acalanes High School.

Walker is on the board of managers of the Mt. Diablo Young Men's Christian Association and is attorney for that corporation. He is a member of the charter review committee of the Meridian District of the Boy Scouts.

He is a judge in the current quest of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce for the Outstanding Young Man of the Year in Lafayette. A year ago he was chairman of Lafayette Man of the Year Committee in the annual award sponsored by The Sun.

WALKER RETIRED from the Navy in 1954, at his own request, and resumed active practice of law. At the time of his retirement he was in command of the parachute and weather schools at Lakehurst, N. J. He came to Lafayette, where his wife's family had lived since about 1938.

In the Navy Walker did legal work, including giving domestic relations advice and, in later years, handling all types of disciplinary problems.

The 54-year-old attorney has been active in a wide variety of community projects.

WALKER was born in Oakland on April 22, 1903. He attended public schools in Hayward, Berkeley and Oakland, graduating from Oakland Technical High School.

The bright New Year

NEW YEAR SIGHTS... Passersby chuckling over the contents of a two-toned tan station wagon parked front of Orinda Hdwe. day after NY's... In the back, two tremendous boxes brimming over w/empties, empties & more empties and another cardboard container crammed w/an asstmt. of tired horns & hats, more hats & horns. A cartoonist's delight!

NOT SO FUNNY... Whoever ade confetti NY's Eve out of the cactus garden affront Zoe Woolsey's real estate office, also knocked down the mailbox, and didn't even say Sorry!

CORN-PETTI... One of our younger gray-flannel-suit set, who ISN'T the handiest man around the house, was gifted by his well-meaning spouse w/a very expensive home workshop. But he's already made a deal w/a friend. To swap same for a set of golf clubs—just as soon as his Mrs. won't miss the workshop where it's gathering dust in their overcrowded garage.

One of our handier husbands is walking around town w/a badly sprained & comically bandaged finger, the result of experimenting w/some of his new Xmas toys. And dangling from the gauzied-up wound, a tiny tag reads "DON'T Do It Yourself!"

A Glorietta housewife w/a passion for kitchen gadgets reports that it takes her longer to open cans w/her new automatic electric can opener and that it's so frustrating (push this, lower that) that she's back to the old-fashioned way!

BEST XMAS BARGAIN—Marian Long's new pet parakeet, "Chlorophyll" (it's green, silly!), purchased at Clark's for the sum of 99 cents. Bird talks on the phone, flutters affily from one head or hand to another, and probably had a mother who hid from it all the time since it has a strong desire to get BEHIND everything. The other day while boning up on-law, catastrophe almost came to Chloro when Marian found it wedged tight between two heavy volumes.

The mem'ries linger on!

There were STARS, UNLIMITED, in decor at the high-over Orinda home of Lefty & Bob Kilpatrick, whose WASSAIL during the holiday season rated gold-stars in party-giving. Guests Eileen Boltz from Marin (she teaches Art at Dominican) arrived w/a very well-behaved Great Dane, name of Brunhilde, who mannerly minded her Mistress & kept her cold nose out of the canapes & crackers placed on the long low tables; Ray Huddacheck, there w/Maureen, brought along his tape recorder, everybody said or sang something (a difficult thing to do—why does everyone USUALLY clam up?) and the record played back was the hilarious HIT of the Party!

In the dining & dancing crowd at the Kilpatricks' were the Gerry Pixleys, Jack & Mary Hightower, George & Joan Vandenberg (they're fairly new to Orinda, from Haiti) and Benny & Jean Benedison (they're BOTH engineers). Another engineering pair from Berkeley were Whitey & Lillegore Johnson and among the guests w/the perfect party formula was the distinguished Dr. Wilson Powell, Berkeley physicist & creator of the world's largest bubble & cloud chahber.

CALYPSO RECORDS COLLECTED on their recent Jamaica-jant proved the piece de resistance at the pre-dinner NY's gathering over at Al & Virginia McCann's lovely home on Van Tassel Lane. The host & hostess home JUST in time to trim the tree for Xmas, after a 3 wk. holiday that took them to the calypso-country via Chicago & Miami. Among the large group of friends hearing a first-hand acct. of the pair's peregrinations were the George Merriams, Tony & Dorothy Markus, Stu & Margo Love and the Art Comerforids.

The McCanns' tree, festive for NY's draped w/serpentine & paper hats & horns, was admired by Edward & Jerry Martin, who arrived w/George & Elly Russell. Colon & Margaret Ann Brown and Ed & Betty Bergen were in the gay crowd, too, convening early before ALL disbursed for dinner at the Country Club, where the party was joined by the Jim Allens and Bee & Jack Van Gelder in the wall-to-wall crowd that popped corks & balloons well into the first hrs. of '58.

OVER IN THE CHAS. HILL region, Pat & Don Woodcock rolled up their carpets to party close friends & neighbors, who included the Stan Hunns, Jerry Cullens, Ed-Wilfords, Jane & Bill Rose, Marilyn & Ernie Haynes, the Bob Lesters & Del Thompsons. MUCH-LY MISSED were Mary & Fil Dorland, who moved to Tahoe early Dec.—who moved twice, we might add, when the pipes in their first Tahoe place were found to be frozen.

There was a BIG WELCOME at the Woodcocks for Auld Acquaintances returning to the fold—they being June & Marv Lee, former Orindans, who for the past 7 yrs. have been in Baltimore & Spokane and are now back to Sunny Christmases again, this time w/a new home in Lafayette.

Nice work if you can get it!

Stella & Bob Boyle fly South tomorrow to be on hand for the party & premiere heralding Shirley Temple's new TV series. They'll be in the audience when you watch the live performance of "Beauty & the Beast" Sunday eve, 8 p.m., Channel 4!

Millie & Fred Twining basked at the Biltmore Hotel, LA, for a well-deserved holiday this past week... Jack & Very Hart started the NY w/a Disneyland-visit w/their youngsters, dgthr. Linda & son Eugene.

Visitors to the adults' Disneyland, and we DO mean Las Vegas, were the Richard Naismiths & the Henry Soubielles, who made it a foursome for five days of fun & floorshows, esp. recommending Dick Shawn, comedian who steals the show right out from under at the new Tropicana taj-mahal.

SMALL WORLD STORY... Dorothy Barden, waiting for a last-minute giftwrap at the Frederick-Nelson store in Seattle, suddenly heard a familiar voice behind her in line and turned around to see Wes Smith, who w/Connie was visiting their dgthr. Pat & her husband in nearby Bremerton. Dorothy & Lance were in Seattle for the holidays w/son Steve and his Shirley.

THE OLD ENGLISH TRADITION OF "BOXING DAY," national holiday falling post-Xmas when outside-of-family gifts are exchanged, was revived here in Orinda by Sylvia & Bob Cox for a large group of friends on Dec. 27. From the bay area and the peninsula came friends of 10 years to the couple's new home on El Rincon for the party which has been a tradition w/the American husbands & their English wives since they all first met when the British Brides first chartered a plane home to the Isles for a visit some yrs. ago.

ENGLISH HOLLY, TRIFLE & a Christmas "Ghost" were only part of the British customs that made the party such a special affair... The American-husbands humorously assumed English accents for the day, and the children were wide-eyed at the contents of the "Ghost," a branded plum pudding w/silver coin hidden between its crumb. (In England, threepenny, sixpence or silver good luck charms are used.) To add to the British authenticity, one of the guests had her mother Mrs. Elsie Hallard here from Manchester for the holidays.

HEARTS & FLOWERS... The nearly 100 guests who gathered Sun., Dec. 29, at the Los Arboles home of the King Wilkins came to greet the newly-wed Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Frase (Marianne Somers)... but before leaving, they also had the occasion to offer further felicitations—the second round of good wishes to another couple—the host's son, Andre Kim Wilkins, and Sonja Tatjana Kischner, to whom he is affianced. The future bride is the dgthr. of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Kischner of Rio de Janeiro, and the couple will make their matrimonial vows mid-summer in Manhattan.

DOROTHY & DOUG ADIE, now of 142 Riverview Dr., Marietta, Ohio, are learning to cope w/the elements, a night temp. 60 below & "Snow, enough for sledding for anyone under 15 and enough, too, to strike terror in the hearts of us older ones." (By now, we hope they've broken in their snowshoes.) Dorothy adds, too, that "the movers certainly did a complete job, right down to the Orinda telephone books and 1/2 of an angel food cake."

Of course you knew we meant SPOCKetbook last wk. ... and come to think of it, why not call a 10 yr old boy a "Spocknick"? Well, any age would do! They're all raised on Spock nowadays, aren't they?

Death Car Driver Charged by DA For Manslaughter

Berl D. Bales, 50, 1260 Grove Way, Concord, has been charged with felony manslaughter in connection with the traffic death of Steven M. Lewis, 15, 998 Grayson Road, Pleasant Hill.

The complaint against Bales was signed Friday by Deputy District Attorney David Levy who stated the case would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

THE YOUTH, editor of the Pleasant Hill High School newspaper, died of injuries caused by Bales when he was struck by Bales' pickup truck while helping a friend change a flat tire New Year's Eve.

A California Highway Patrol report states that Bales was "under the influence of alcohol and grossly negligent."

A blood alcohol test was taken the night of the accident and will be presented as a part of the prosecution, said Levy.

Under the penal code, manslaughter may be punished with a maximum of 10 years in state prison. Bail for Bales was set at $2000.

MEMORIAL SERVICES for the boy were held Sunday at MacFarlane-Bryant in Concord.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Lewis; a sister, Martha, and a grandmother, Mrs. Leah Osman of Los Angeles.

Scholarship Fund Established Here in Lewis Memory

A scholarship in memory of 15-year-old Steven Lewis, Pleasant Hill High School honor student and the son of a county schools guidance consultant, has been inaugurated by the staff of County Superintendent B. O. Wilson and the Lewis family.

Wilson said details of the scholarship remain to be worked out but it will probably be awarded for achievement in journalism. Anyone is welcome to contribute.

The financial details will be handled by the Martinez branch of the American Trust Company. Donations may be delivered there in person or by mail, said the superintendent. The scholarship funds will be held in trust and administered exclusively by the bank.

Young Lewis, who died January 2 from injuries suffered in an automobile accident New Year's eve, was an honor student in journalism and planned to continue his studies at Reed College, Oregon. He was editor of the Rampage, Pleasant Hill High student newspaper.

Steven was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Lewis of Pleasant Hill. Lewis is guidance consultant and coordinator of special education on the staff of the county superintendent.

As proposed, the scholarship will go to a Pleasant Hill High School student, but should no one qualify, it would be awarded to some other high school graduate in Contra Costa County.

Nuna Gillette Services Held

Private funeral services were held Monday morning at Niehaus Mortuary in Berkeley for Mrs. Nuna B. Gillette of 945 Dewing Avenue, Lafayette, who died December 31 after a long illness. The services were conducted by the Rev. Henry Page White of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

Interment followed at Sunset Mausoleum, Berkeley.

Mrs. Gillette had lived in Lafayette about 15 years. Her husband, Charles A. Gillette, died a few years ago.

Born in Newark, Ohio, Mrs. Gillette was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Beatty.

Survivors are a nephew, Clifford L. Hatfield of Los Angeles, and a niece, Mrs. Jesse L. Hatfield, also of Los Angeles.

Power Failure Brings Firemen

Two overheated furnaces in different portions of Lafayette brought firemen to the rescue Monday, according to Robert Winkel, head of the fire prevention bureau.

Furnaces at the home of Mrs. Harry Sontag, 889 Upland Drive and Robert F. Harrigan of 3510 Hamlin Road overheated due to a power failure, said Winkel.

In the event of a power failure, some furnaces that have electrically driven fans or blowers, will cease to move the heated air and cause an overheating of the furnace itself," Winkel commented.

"Should there be a power failure, turn off the thermostat to avoid trouble, he warned.

Pyramids are for Fun, Friendship -- Housewife

By NORMAN COLBY

"It's time someone gave the people's side to this Pyramid game," Mrs. Joanne Cross of 343 Kathleen Drive, Pleasant Hill, told The Sun, this week.

Mrs. Cross, like hundreds of other law-respecting citizens, was miffed at stories which appeared in The Sun and several other newspapers last week, and offered the use of her name in the hope that the "pros" would be told, along with the "cons."

She and others feel that the newspapers were unduly harsh on people who have innocently entered pyramids, which may pay up to $4096 on a $4 investment to those who reach the top.

A resident of the area for four years and mother of three children, Mrs. Cross declared that most people join pyramids "to have some fun and meet new friends."

SHE CONTINUED, "Let's face it. Life gets routine for everyone, and this came along as a form of diversion which the people welcomed. There is no intent to hide anything or put anything over on anyone."

"All this bad publicity has thrown everyone in a turmoil. We all want to obey the law, but is an opinion the law?"

"When the newspapers quoted the district attorney's office as calling this a lottery, many of us cancelled our parties, and a lot of people due to collect on their pyramids returned the envelopes, telling the others to wait until this gets straightened out."

"Doesn't this show the honesty of intent on their part?"

MRS. CROSS continued, "I think part of the trouble is that people don't like to be told what to do as long as no harm is being done, and no one is being fooled."

"Do you have any idea how many new friends we have all made as a result of these parties? A lot of people hardly knew the people in their neighborhoods before this began."

"And do you have any idea how this has stimulated business activity. The merchants are definitely benefiting."

"It's quite apparent too that a lot of people who are considered leaders in their community are in the pyramids. Certainly we don't question their motives!" she said.

"MR. LEVY AT the district attorney's office is supposed to have said that even if these are lotteries, they are like the church raffle, which may not be legal, but is allowed as long as no one complains."

"We just find it hard to understand why the papers should make such a big thing of this."

"We just don't feel that we are doing anything wrong or illegal. Do you think we would involve our friends in such a thing if we thought it was illegal?"

"Of course, there is the prospect of receiving some money if you work hard on your pyramid. We have thought of paying some Christmas bills with any we might make, and I have even made a list of things I'd like to buy with the rest of it!"

"AS FOR ME, I think the main reason most people enter pyramids is just that it's fun," she concluded.

The reasoning which has led

"If a group of people form a voluntary association for the purpose of making a profit for all, providing there is no concealment or fraudulent activity, it is perfectly legal—providing nothing goes through the mail and that all monies received are declared in your income tax."

This opinion is in contrast to that of the Contra Costa County District Attorney's office, which has given the opinion that pyramids are illegal, as they are lottery. No prosecutions are contemplated unless a complaint is filed, Deputy District Attorney David Levy has said.

Prize Means Records for School Dances

The Orinda Mothers Club gives a prize for 100 per cent membership during its annual membership drive. This year the Pine Grove School won the award with the capable leadership of Mrs. G. B. S. Ricketts, who was in charge of the drive there.

The prize money was used to buy records for use at the school dances for the seventh and eighth grade pupils, held on Friday nights at the school.

Girls' League Holds Its First Social Function

Members of the Orinda Girls' League, which consists of eighth grade girls, held their first social function last month pre-holidays with a beautifully-appointed tea at the Crane Court residence of Mrs. Channing Kilburn.

Guests were sister seventh-graders at the Pine Grove School who recently elected to form their own league.

The Orinda Girls' League, although it is made up of girls attending Pine Grove School, is not in any way connected with the Orinda School District or with any of the district's organizations or schools.

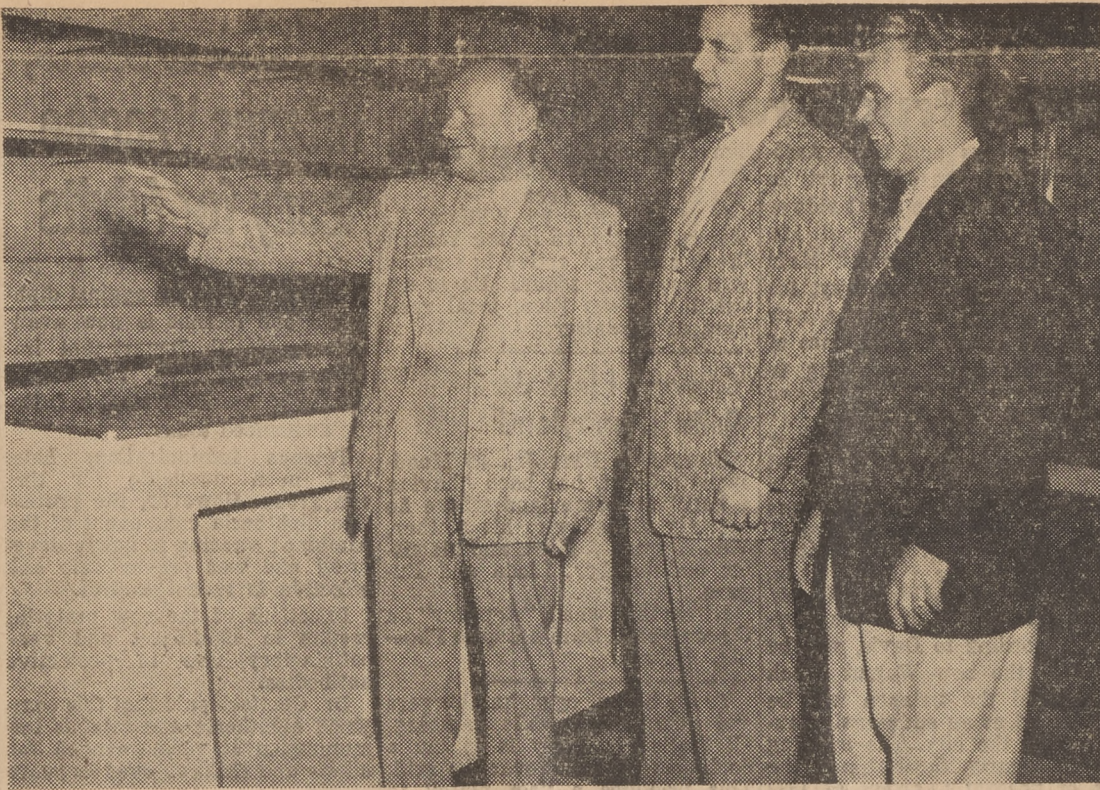

According to Mrs. Walter Christie, seventh grade mother advisor to the league, the membership is open to all girls, seventh and eighth grades, with the aims and purpose of the groups being to promote friendship toward all girls, give social experiences (thereby increasing social confidence) and to promote 100 per cent similar dress of Pine Grove School girls during 1958.

The dainty tea sandwiches and refreshments, which drew compliments from all attending, were made by eighth grade girls under the chairmanship of Sherry Odenhall, and hostesses carried out their duties as directed by hostess chairman Karen Satherwaite.

Girls' League officers for the eighth grade for the current year are Cathv Ollibant, president; Carol Gilmore, vice-president; Todd Hawkins, secretary, and Carlina Collins, treasurer.

Marcia Jacobs will captain the room chairman, Rotsy Kilburn will head the social committee and Vickie Tesman will direct membership and telephone.

GOP Women Will Hear Talk By Mardikian

Mrs. Melvin Jacobus, program chairman of the Orinda Republican Women's Club, announces that she has secured the services of a nationally known figure as the club's first speaker of the new year—George Mardikian.

Mardikian, restaurateur, author, lecturer in great demand, has found room in his busy schedule and will appear next Thursday morning at the Orinda Community Church hall under the auspices of the Republican women.

Mardikian, an Armenian by birth and a thorough American by adoption, is the owner of the famous Omar Khayyam's restaurant in San Francisco. As a consultant to the Army in the matter of processing and preparing foods in large quantities, he holds a Medal of Freedom certifying to the nation's gratitude for the assistance given during World War II.

"Mardikian's book 'Song of America' should be required reading for all of those native-born Americans who so complacently accept the wonders of our country," said Mrs. Jacobus.

Mrs. Marvin G. Kennedy, president of the Orinda Republican Women's Club, invites all interested Republicans to attend Mardikian's lecture, which will follow a short business meeting beginning at 10 a.m. Thursday.

The following boys have advanced into a Webelos den to prepare for the Tenderfoot rank in Boy Scouts: Chip Gardner, Mike Henning, Don McConnell, Bruce Odelberg, Ricky Staf, Timmy Thor, Gene Tobias, and Chuck Worth.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. John Bishop of 8 Lt Sombra Court at noon Wednesday.

Any newcomers to Orinda are welcome and are asked to call Mrs. R. E. Gilbert, 48 Longridge Road, or Mrs. John Bishop.

Miramonte Mirror

By SALLIE DeWITT

ANOTHER MARK

Chalk up another mark of growing up for Miramonte. On Friday, December 13, the Mirador, the school paper, came out with its first issue. The comments were good and bad, and the paper profited $17.

A big coming event at MHS is the Ski Club dance, the Sitz-mark Stomp, to be held on January 24. The unique feature of this dance is that everyone must wear ski clothes (boots excepted).

Six Welcomed

At a recent candlelight ceremony conducted at Glorietta School, Cubmaster Bill Henning welcomed the following six boys into Orinda Cub Pack 225: David Mirov, Phillip Bush, John Henrich, Doug Skilling, James Waldon, Stuart Campbell.

Awards were presented to the following Cub Scouts: Bobbie Mansonen, Robbie Rhoda, Pete Talbot, Paul Yriberri, Vic Traverso, Chuck Worth, Tim Thor, Don McConnell, Drew Farnsen, Allan Odelberg, Larry Rosen, Bob Skilling, Bob Schneider, Tommy Locke, Jim Coffey, Henry Pinney, Jim Worth.

The following boys have advanced into a Webelos den to prepare for the Tenderfoot rank in Boy Scouts: Chip Gardner, Mike Henning, Don McConnell, Bruce Odelberg, Ricky Staf, Timmy Thor, Gene Tobias, and Chuck Worth.

Tonight is the first league game of the basketball season this year and the first league basketball game in Miramonte's history. The game will be played here against Pittsburg.

He also said the organization by Robert Callan, head of the P. E. department, was excellent and was responsible for much of the success.

AFS Prepares For Next Year's Young Visitors

The American Field Service Committee of Orinda held a meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Sig Groennings, chairman.

Mrs. Arthur M. Flint was introduced as chairman of the home selection committee, which is seeking homes for two European students who will come to Orinda and attend Miramonte High School at seniors next year, under the AFS international scholarship program.

Mrs. Flint announced that applications which parents can fill out if they wish to have a student live in the home had been left at the school office on Monday for the students to take home.

The committee is looking for a home for a boy and a home for a girl. Orinda families with AFS students this year are the Charles F. Ericksons, who have a Swedish girl, and the Robert W. Browns, who have a German boy.

MRS. FLINT will be present at the Miramonte Parents Club meeting next Monday to answer any questions. Applications must be returned to the school office by January 20.

Mrs. Groennings told the committee that there will be an AFS Exchange Week sometime in February, during which AFS students throughout the Bay Area will change homes.

Those who have had the experience of living in the country will be placed in city homes, and vice versa. Both Mrs. Erickson and Mrs. Brown wish to participate in this exchange.

MRS. CARL KALBFLEISCH sent word that she has heard often from the Danish girl who lived with the Kalbfleisch family last year. Elin Rasmussen writes that she has been asked to give about 10 speeches and show her California slides in Denmark.

She has been asked to help pick the 1958-59 students from among those who have applied for AFS scholarships to come to America.

First Savings to Build New Structure in WC

First Savings and Loan Association has purchased property in Walnut Creek on the South side of proposed new extension of Mt. Diablo Boulevard between Main Street and North Broadway, for the purpose of building a new and larger office to take care of its growing need, according to Stuart Davis, Orinda resident and president of First Savings.

The pie-shaped lot with 205 feet on the new frontage being created by the extension of Mt. Diablo Boulevard in accordance with the Little Master Plan, was purchased from the M. G. Rose Estate through the William F. Anderson Realty Company of Walnut Creek. Approximately half of the property, according to Davis, will be used for the new Walnut Creek office, and the balance will be landscaped as an additional beauty spot in the city. The building will be nearly three times the size of present quarters at 1332 Main Street.

The Walnut Creek office of First Savings and Loan Association as opened 10 years ago as the third of the six-office operation in the Bay Area.

Howard Hart Jr. Visits Disneyland

Howard J. Hart Jr., 38 Meadowpark Court, has been "having a ball" at Disneyland where he recently visited with his mother, Mrs. Howard J. Hart, and his sister and brother, Linda and Eugene.

Disneyland was a "stopover" on the way back from a trip to Phoenix, Arizona.

To fry bacon, eggs, hamburgers and other foods while camping, all that's necessary is to lay a double sheet of foil over the grid. This provides a "hot plate" to cook on, and affords any desired degree of heat, if the fire has been built right.

Diphtheria Shots, Tetanus Vaccine Ready for Adults

"An improved vaccine for immunization of adults against diphtheria and tetanus is now available in Health Department immunization clinics", Dr. Elvira Goettsch, Assistant Health Officer, announced today.

Tetanus immunizations have long been available for this age group. However, the protective diphtheria component of the combined vaccine is newly developed and was proven safe and effective in recent studies.

Dr. Goettsch said that this combined diphtheria and tetanus immunization is recommended for adults and children over 12 years of age.

Axelson Is Pres. Of Oil Group

The East Contra Costa Oil Information Committee members, at the final meeting for 1957, elected Vernon Axelson their Chairman for 1958. Axelson succeeds Donald J. Smith (Tidewater Oil Company) who piloted the local committee in 1957.

Axelson was born, raised, and schooled in Oakland and now lives in Orinda with his wife, Lila and their two daughters, Linda and Laraine. He joined Shell in 1936 and is the present Merchandising Representative for the Company in this area.

Axelson is active in civic affairs, being a member of the Contra Costa Development Association, the Concord Chamber of Commerce, the Orinda Association and the East Contra Costa Oil Information Committee, serving this latter committee as Chairman for the Pleasant Hill Martinez area this past year.

Under Axelson's leadership the East Contra Costa Oil Information Committee will continue to represent the oil industry throughout eastern Contra Costa County during the coming year.

Christian Science Services Sunday

The vital importance of following the example of the Master, Christ Jesus, in our thoughts and actions will be emphasized Sunday at Christian Science services.

Christian Science churches are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church, on Gregory Lane. Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Sacrament" is the Golden Text from I Corinthians (5:8): "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, either with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (37:22-25): "It is possible,—yea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man, and woman,—to follow in some degree the example of the Master by the demonstration of Truth and Life, of health and holiness."

From the Bible will be read the following (Mark 16:15): "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

The Housing Authority . . . Exactly What Is It?

What's all the furor about a housing authority in this county, and why is it getting so much space on the front pages of The Sun?

In fact, just what is a "housing authority"?

These questions are being asked in our various communities, and there is an understandable confusion about the function and origin of the Housing Authority of Contra Costa.

Here are some facts and background that may shed light on the running news stories on Page One.

The Housing Authority of Contra Costa County is operated by a board of directors consisting of five men who serve without pay. They are appointed by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

COMMISSIONERS are reimbursed for expenses incurred while serving for the housing authority. The executive director, who occupies a full time post, receives $991 per month. This was the position, until recently filled by Ronald A. Howard, who has been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on a single count of conversion of government property to private use.

The post is now filled by Warren Harrold of Orinda.

How was the authority formed, and whence does it derive its funds and power?

The authority was formed in 1941 through an act of the federal government when the Public Housing Administration was created to provide defense housing.

This group, the PHA, gets its authority from the Home and Housing Finance Administration, which is directly responsible to the executive branch of the government and is controlled by Congressional statutes.

The State of California has no control over the FHA or the HHFA.

SIMILARLY, THE county government has no control over the Contra Costa Housing Authority, except in its capacity to appoint directors for a four year term. It retains the power to fail to renew an appointment. However, it cannot dismiss an appointee except with good cause, which might be requested by the District Attorney's Office, the Grand Jury, or other members of the housing authority board.

Commissioners are responsible directly to the regional office for the Public Housing Administration in San Francisco and to the division office for Home and Housing Finance Administration in Los Angeles, where the compliance division is located.

It is this compliance division which investigates irregularities in the management of local housing authorities.

THE LOCAL AUTHORITY derives its funds from rents and the federal government, not from local taxes. However, the federal monies it receives are derived from tax money.

Now, why all the fuss about the housing authority?

Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance superintendent, charged "irregularities" in the authority. These charges were made in an open letter to the board of supervisors, the grand jury, and The Sun, which printed the charges in full. All the charges have been answered by the authority to the grand jury in a closed hearing.

HOWEVER, THE LOCAL grand jury stopped investigation when it was refused information by a federal investigator from the compliance division of HHFA.

This investigator turned his information over to the federal grand jury which indicted Howard.

The investigation is still in progress.

Some Serious Stuff About Taxes, Taxes and Taxes

By PAT PENDING

This column is meant to be of a very serious nature about things which directly affect every resident of Contra Costa County. 1957 is now history. 1958 has begun and most of us have already received our Withholding Tax statements, our annual book from the Bureau of Internal Revenue explaining how to make our post Christmas gift to Uncle Sam, and, perhaps, California Franchise Tax forms.

We know that taxes are necessary in any nation. We know that we need more schools, better highways, and continued employment in this county. We know that we must pay for schools and highways, however, most of us wonder why taxes are so high.

FIRST OF ALL, there has never been $275,000,000,000 of LAW-FUL money in this nation. What then did we borrow?

We borrowed created credit for the most part. Many individuals have purchased United States Bonds but the great bulk have been purchased by private banks of the privately owned Federal Reserve System by the simple method of writing bookkeeping entries on their books crediting the government with the amount of the interest-bearing obligations.

By law, these banks may create and lend at interest many times the amount of actual money they possess in demand or time deposits. That is why our National Debt represents more LAW-FUL money than ever existed in this country. And, the reason our taxes are so high is because we are paying a constant tribute to the financial institutions for the doubtful privilege of using their created credit (in lieu of lawful legal tender) as the purchasing power to move our goods, pay for our defensive material, and our scientific advancement.

IF OUR National Debt were paid off, we would have no money to do business with! This fact was brought out in 1940 during Congressional hearings on the Lend-Lease Bill. Think this over carefully as you make out your income tax return for 1957. Think also about a statement made by a writer for the National Banking Institute:

"Periods of good times require more purchasing power than periods of depression!"

Then recall what happened to the building industry last year when the Federal Reserve Board instituted the "tight" money policy. Business depressions do not just happen—they are deliberately created!

WE ARE at the threshold of a new scientific age. The Soviet Union has demonstrated its efficiency to the whole world. We must not permit an unscientific, un-Constitutional money system to so handicap our technological advancement that we fall behind the Communists.

It is a wonderful thing for the press and the citizens of any specific county to deplore local mismanagement and corruption. It is equally important for local citizens to be interested in such things as affect the nation as a whole—perhaps its very life.

If you drive an automobile remember this—the key to preventing traffic accidents is you yourself. Being courteous and cooperating with other motorists are the most important parts of driving safely.

Red Cross Will Teach Safety Courses Soon

Water safety teacher's instruction courses will be given throughout next summer at several California locations as part of the American Red Cross' National Water Safety Program.

The course, designed primarily to assist swimming and boating instructors to teach more efficiently, will be held at Camp Tulequia, Miramonte, and Camp Ravencliff, Garberville.

Locally, the Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, has announced that applicants will be considered during the next two months on the basis of age, physical condition and swimming ability.

Additionally, applicants should have a definite plan for using the training in teaching specific classes in public, private or co-operative pools.

BOATING AND Canoeing instructor courses will be given at Camp Tulequia, June 13 to 23. From August 20 to 30, the same site will host student instructors in a course that will assist in teaching swimming to handicapped persons.

Camp Ravencliff has been designated to give a course in Water First Aid from August 20 through August 30.

The fee is approximately $50 for each of the ten-day sessions, including room and board.

LOCAL RED CROSS spokesmen indicate that a few scholarships will be available for eligible applicants. The Mt. Diablo Chapter Fund will sponsor those receiving the scholarship awards.

Scholarship instructors will give occasional classes, during the balance of the swimming season for the Mt. Diablo Red Cross Chapter.

Interested parties may make application by letter to the Water Safety Committee, Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross in Walnut Creek, stating qualifications and other information that might be helpful to the committee in screening applicants.

Here is Children's Guide To Fun In The Bay Area

By Herman Silverman

Last Sunday Good Wife Eleanor chirped, "You're always writing in your column about families doing things together and telling everyone interesting places to visit and things to do. Your last column mentioned roller skating for the family. If you practice what you preach, let's go—today—soon—now."

Before I could say "No, I'm tired,"—I found myself on roller skates whizzing around the Skate Haven rink in Walnut Creek. You should have seen the Old Man, Eleanor, Mark, Dan and Janet, holding hands and skating in a family line up.

Truthfully, it was real fun. The kids, plus Jan Mangini, a neighbor gal, got a big bang out of it—and so did Eleanor and me. It was invigorating, good exercise and a swell family outing.

This introduces today's epic column.

A treasure discovered

After some research, I discovered a treasure: "Let's Go—A Children's Guide to Fun in the Bay Area." This is a comprehensive 74-page booklet compiled and published by the American Association of University Women, Richmond Branch. It is a wonderful, wonderful pamphlet, published as a public service by this non-profit group.

I just called Mrs. J. H. Geiger, a former president, and she told me that copies could be obtained at the Richmond Chamber of Commerce for 75 cents. But Richmond is not too close to us. Then, came the brainstorm. Why not make them available to you through The Sun?

Here are all the details

1. Send 75c (not cash please) to The Sun with a short note and clearly PRINT your name, mailing address, city and phone number. We will mail it to you.

(Addresses: Orinda: PO Box 147, Walnut Creek: PO Box 1038, Pleasant Hill: PO Box 123, Lafayette: PO Box 806.)

2. Or come to The Sun office. (Lafayette-Orinda: 1000 Oak Hill Rd., Lafayette; Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill: 1320 Locust St., Walnut Creek.)

You can mail it in today, but please don't come into the office for them before Monday in case the mail from Richmond is slow.

What's the book about? I'll quote from the Pre-Fun: "This guide book is a sincere attempt to answer that restlessness of the human spirit which demands of Mother and Dad on a Saturday or Sunday or the second week of school vacation, 'Let's go somewhere! Let's do something!' 'Let's Go' is of interest primarily to boys and girls up to 12 years old or to those who are responsible for directing activities of those ages. In many cases, however, the information is useful also to adults."

In front of me is the first edition published in 1952. This has been revised and the one you can buy is a 1957. The table of contents reads briefly:

Excursions, hour-long and day-long. By bus, by boat and by auto.

Group tours. Picnic places around the bay. Camping—week-end outings for the family, going away to camp, camp at home.

Fiestas, parks and playgrounds, sports, organizations, arts and crafts, plays for children, music, finding a pet, kids' calendar, libraries.

Sounds good. It is good.

Our local AAUW groups have these booklets available to contact them. However, if they wish to handle distribution in this area, The Sun will be most happy to have them do so. In the meantime, they will be available from The Sun. Have fun!

Come one, come all...

And speaking of fun—Remember, a week from Saturday night (January 18) is the Sun's Father-and-Kids Basketball Night at St. Mary's College. Through the generosity of St. Mary's. The Sun started this last year—and it was a terrific success. A few people had to be turned away but were allowed to come back the next night.

To avoid this, The Sun printed coupons during the past weeks so you could send them to us for advance reservations. We received 62 reservations for adults who reserved 187 seats for kids. These seats will be saved until 8 p.m. St. Mary's College is saving 700 seats—so there will be 451 seats available to you.

Cut out the coupon in The Sun and bring it along. $1.25 for each adult and as many kids as you want for free. See first section for details.

A Personal Loss . . .

By NORMAN COLBY

I had never met Steve Lewis. I had never heard his voice and I had not seen his picture until it appeared in a daily paper the day he died. I HAVE BEEN a newspaper man for five years. The qualifications include a certain degree of cold-bloodedness—without it you cannot succeed in the business. I have developed it, I hope.

Yet, I felt a deep, personal emotion when they reported that one of Steve's legs had to be amputated after that New Year's Eve auto accident, and it would have been easy for me to give way to tears when later they said he had died.

I am 30 years old. The only fan letter I ever wrote in my life went to Steve Lewis, only 15, area high school senior and the school's newspaper editor.

The inner workings of most men's souls usually become known only to their most loved ones, for only their loved ones are close enough to take the words and actions over the months and years and weave a pattern of goodness or evil from them.

But with some men who write, like Steve Lewis, their inner selves become valued public property, and when that property is lost, the public also loses.

It's that loss that has affected Steve's friends, distant acquaintances, enemies, if any, and other persons like me who only have seen his writings.

FOURTEEN DAYS before his death, I and two others newspapermen at the end of our weekly "edition day," fell to talking about the "Hard Guys" and the "White Shoes" in high school—and where Steve Lewis fitted in.

"You know him. What would Steve say to this?" I recall asking one of my companions.

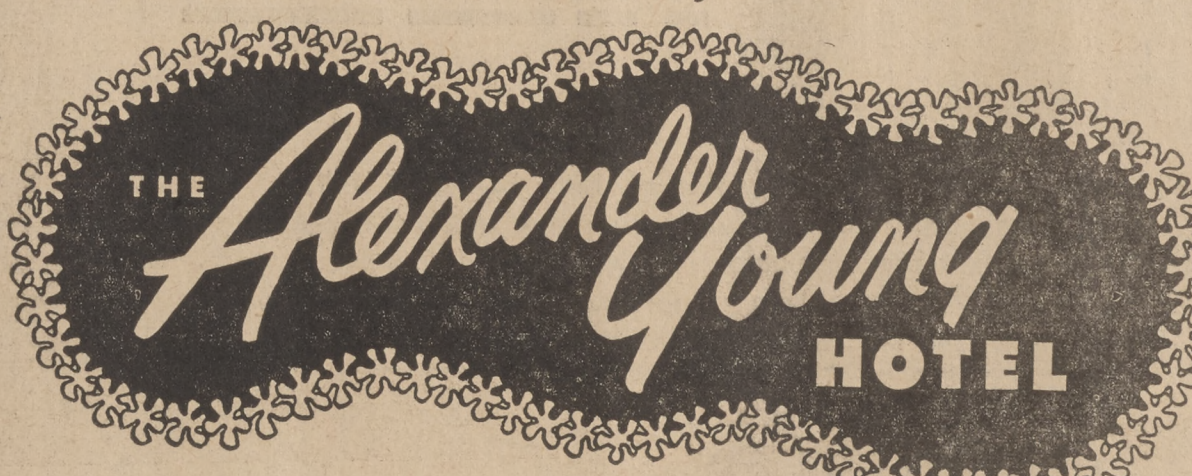

My fan letter was a short one in reply to Steve's November 8 column on "Schools for the Brave New World." He slammed "life adjustment wish-wash, and school courses on 'How to Get a Date, How to Improve Your Personality, How to . . .'"

My comment was limited to "congratulations," while another newsman, John Plumb, did a better job my analyzing even further Steve's credo in a "letter to the editor."

If Steve Lewis had grown to manhood and fulfilled some of the promise in him. I might not have found him very likeable, despite, or because of his strength of character, human nature being what it is. And, if he might eventually have taken a turn for the worse, disappointing his rooters, I might then have found him more likeable as a person, since people have a tendency to shun their superiors and to cultivate their inferiors!

In any event, he belonged to all of us, and the about-to-be in Steve Lewis was a wonderful thing to contemplate. Now that he is gone, we can only wonder how many Steve Lewises have been lost, and what the effect has been on history through the centuries.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER

The holidays are over—but the memories linger on; so please bear with me while we talk about a few more Christmas parties. This should end that phase, and THEN what will I do for news, what with Valentine's Day a month away?

The first one that comes to mind was held at the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center where Mrs. Charles Benoy, the Center's director, gave a lovely breakfast party. Guests were members of the staff and their husbands and wives.

ALSO PRESENT were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bradbard, Mrs. J. R. LaRieu and Mrs. Harold Parker—all members of the Board of Directors and all GOOD friends of the entire center. Card tables were covered with attractive Christmas cloths and napkins and centered with clusters of berries.

A delicious and abundant breakfast was served from a buffet table upon which many large chafing dishes fragrantly steamed. Mrs. Benoy's party was held in the Occupational Therapy Department the day before Christmas—and such good therapy it was, too!

We will be pleased to accept...

Friends and neighbors happily accepted invitations to attend Mrs. Ceril Hurray's annual Christmas luncheon. The Hurray home was attractively decorated with sprays and sprays of shining holly.

Luncheon was served buffet style, followed by bridge. Flicker members and husbands always get together at "Santa" time and this year their meeting place was the Pioneer Village where they dined in a private room—but enjoyed dancing to the music of the Village's band. The long tables were festively decorated with pine boughs, cones and berries.

Among those present: Lorraine and Richard Olsen, Darlene and Ronald Barron, Frances and Bob Schroder and Ruth and John Bell. Lorraine Olsen, outgoing president, was presented with a beautiful necklace and earring set.

A LARGE AND LOVELY party was hosted by Georgette and Frank Walker who live on Van Ripper Lane, Sleepy Hollow. Guests were greeted on the lawn by a jolly, electrically controlled Santa who invited them to enter. A bit unusual in the way of decoration: each year the Walker's entrance hall walls are completely "papered" with Christmas cards which have been hung on ribbons. What a nice way to display them!

Naturally, the entire home was very "holidayish" in decor. Some of the guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Truman Floyd, Dan Peacock, Elmer Berry, Alex Paulsen, Harold Dornesen, Robert Wolcott, Harold Caldwell, Robert Dashiell, Berton Kohler and Ernest Starkman.

The Starlings' last meeting of the year—was devoid of business. In fact, it, too, turned into a gay Christmas celebration. Held at the home of Mildred Lapham in Martinez, its primary purpose was to honor outgoing president Irvine Kennedy who, among other things, has worked outstandingly on the very successful Christmas Gift Box. After an exchange of gifts, the girls presented Irvine with a stunning golf jacket and matching golf cap. THRILLED was she!

Jack Kennedys entertain beautifully

The Jack Kennedys entertained with their annual party for members of Jack's band and their wives. Their home is stunningly attractive with its great sweeps of rock walls and huge windows. The planter boxes, usually filled with the usual lovely greens—were enhanced with the holiday planting of glamorous poinsettias.

The guests enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner and then danced on and on—to what music? Of COURSE! Jack's band's music TAPE recorded!

THE KENNEDYS WERE telling me that they and their sons missed not one 49er game—each time traveling by way of Danny Van Allen's bus, as they do each year. Tina and Glenn Jeans and the Carl Justs also make that a must.

As can be expected, Mildred and Danny are reported to be the "perfect hosts." Peggy and Don Johnson have returned from visiting the Earl Kenyons (Maureen K. is Peggy's sister) in Springfield.

The Kenyons' ranch is just about the most picturesque that can be imagined—the whole valley surrounded with blue mountain ranges, and not one—but several natural pools here and there. And then, there's Earl Kenyon on a horse! YOU can HAVE "Cheyenne." Well, anyway, the Johnsons spent New Year's there as they do each lucky year.

Heading East for Christmas

Nancy and Carl Newbury headed east for Christmas where they have been visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, and Bill Schacht who live in Lancaster, Wisconsin. The "on the go" Newburys will spend the winter in Florida—along with their trusty trailer. Ah me! Here I sit trying to thaw out my fingers so that I can type! What a heavenly word—Florida!

A group of "old grads" from Acalanes got together the other night for a real reunion. The W. W. Wadman held open house for these old friends: Louise and Howard Burk, Bev and Marv Emerson who were up from Los Angeles, Ginger and Frank King, here from Tulalake, Ruby and Al Beck and Joan and Sam Mason of Lafayette. After an evening of "catching up" and reviewing (and probably murdering) the old songs, a late and lingering supper was served.

Ground clearing scheduled this week for a new Hagstrom's supermarket near Orinda Village was the cue for an announcement by the East Bay food retailing firm that it will open four large new supermarkets within the next 4 to 8 months.

In addition to the Orinda location, new Hagstrom's stores will be opened in Richmond, East Oakland and Petaluma.

Aggregate expenditures in the expansion program—including real estate, improvements, equipment and stock—will be about $2 million, according to Emil A. Hagstrom, president of the company.

Two of the new units will be leased in shopping centers and two are being developed by the food firm itself.

OPENING of the Orinda supermarket, first building of a shopping center under development by Jack Buchter and Associates of Orinda, is scheduled for May of this year.

Buchter revealed that cost of the Orinda Village supermarket building will be in excess of $225,000.

The 16,000 square foot store—an attractive contemporary style suburban food center—will have parking for approximately 100 cars.

IN RICHMOND, Hagstrom's is now in process of completely remodeling the former Uptown Theater, adjoining Richmond's Civic Center on Macdonald Avenue. Opening is planned in April.

Only the walls and roof of the concrete and steel theater building will be used in the conversion to a spacious, up-to-minute supermarket. Adjoining property has been acquired to provide parking for approximately 100 cars.

In East Oakland, ground has been cleared of buildings to provide the site for another new Hagstrom's supermarket at Foot-Hill Boulevard and Avenal Avenue in the Seminary district. Plans by Alvin Fingado and George Kern, architects, are nearing completion and construction will start soon on the 16,000 square foot market with a 100-car parking lot.

Hagstrom's Petaluma store will be located in a shopping center under development by Petaluma Trade Center, Inc. The center is being planned by John Davis Young, Palo Alto architect, and construction is expected to get under way early this year.

"THESE NEW large units indicate our intention not only to hold but to advance our position as a major factor in Northern California food retailing," Calvin Hagstrom, company vice-president, announced in a letter to all employees of the company.

Construction and remodeling contracts for the stores in Orinda, Richmond and East Oakland have been awarded to Harry K. Jensen, Oakland general contractor.

Diablo Chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers met yesterday at the Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek.

These monthly meetings are open to all Mt. Diablo Area Professional Engineers.

B-o-o-o-a-rd! Diablo Valley Lines Run Tonight!

Tonight the fifth Annual Show of the Walnut Creek Model Railroad Society will open for a three-day run at the clubhouse in Walnut Creek on Railroad Avenue near the Southern Pacific Depot.

The miniature Diablo Valley lines railroad in HO scale (a little more than 1/8 inch to the foot) will rock and roll with the furious action of a dozen or more exquisitely detailed, electric driven models, over and through 800 square feet of amazingly realistic scenery constructed by the club members, inside the clubhouse.

THE OFFICIAL TIMETABLE provides that the show must go on, no matter what the weather may be.

Club president J. L. Melady is confident that even the worst weather will fail to dampen the enthusiasm of model railroad fans. He recalled two years ago when most of Walnut Creek was flooded by a torrential storm, yet more than 2,500 determined visitors from all over the Bay Area made their way through rain and mud to attend the show and watch the model trains in action.

Superintendent Dave Westcott has worked his crew of men for the past six months to complete a major rebuilding job of the tracks and scenery. They will continue working every evening this week, until midnight or later, to make sure all is in top working order so the trains will run steadily for three days without a hitch.

THE SMALL ADMISSION fee of 25 cents is the club's only source of revenue to keep the railroad running each year and to provide for enlarging and improving the layout.

The Diablo Valley Lines is one of the two largest and most popular model railroad layouts in the Bay Area. The club was organized nine years ago and now has 19 active members. Membership is open to anyone who is seriously interested in model railroading and over the age of 13 years.

Applications for membership may be made to club secretary John E. McKirahan in Lafayette.

The countless fathers whose sons unselfishly provided them with electric trains for Christmas will undoubtedly be eager to learn the best way to run them here!

MRS. ARTHUR SCHARLACH, president, has stated that the League of Jewish Women has recently affiliated with the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, and that the plans include not only better programming, but a wider scope of activity in all endeavors. She has said that this affiliation with a National organization is in a sense the "coming of age" for the League and the future looks very bright.

Now, at the beginning of a New Year, it is most fitting to present a person of Dr. Ash's stature for our first speaker in 1958. We trust that all of the members of the League and their friends will attend this meeting," she said.

DR. ASH is a graduate of the College of Medicine, University of Illinois. She has served on the psychiatric staff of the Veteran's Administration hospital in Palo Alto, and is at the present time an associate psychiatrist on the staff of the Student Health Service at the University of California.

Representatives from Diablo Pittsburg, Antioch, Las Lomas, Miramonte, Acalanes and Pleasant Hill High Schools discussed student activities.

According to Acalanes Principal Stanley Walgren, DVIC and the student governments represented at the conference give students with leadership potential an opportunity to "hold the reins of government" regarding activities within their own sphere, as well as providing "an excellent laboratory for practicing the functions of representative rule."

Eighty student leaders and their advisors attended the conference and were guests of the Acalanes student body at luncheon.

Highway Landscape is Topic at Monday Meet

Beautification problems pertaining to Contra Costa County's new highways will be described by specialists in various fields at a public meeting Monday evening at 8 in the Veterans' Memorial Building, Mt. Diablo Boulevard and First Street, Lafayette.

Until new ordinances controlling the erection of billboards come into effect, money already allocated for landscaping projects along the roads cannot be used, according to Mrs. Basil Winslow of Orinda, member of the Highway and Parkways Committee of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council.

She said: "A powerful expression of public opinion is needed to assure that these highways shall be protected as to natural roadside beauty and enhanced where desirable by the addition of professional landscaping."

William Penn Mott Jr., a resident of Orinda who is Oakland park director, will be chairman for the evening.

AN ARTICLE written by Mott titled, "Public Works Landscape Architecture is Quite Different," was recently published in the magazine "Landscaping," a journal for professionals in landscaping work.

"Sometimes we do have bond money and we are able to do a total job. Most often the problem of creating beauty is a continuing program and takes a lot of effort," Mott wrote.

Dana Bowers, landscape architect for the California State Division of Highways will describe plans made by his office for this county, particularly for the Pleasant Hill Interchange.

Mel Nielsen, County Supervisor, will present the ordinances being proposed throughout the county for the control of outdoor advertising on billboards adjacent to highways.

YALE MAXON will speak for the California Roadside Council. Representatives of the County Department of Public Works will describe plans being made in the Martinez office for the landscaping of county roads.

The Highway and Parkways Committee is sponsoring this second meeting in the Council's program for the year.

Other members of the committee are Curtis Newcombe, Lafayette; Mesdames J. P. Shally, Canyon; R. L. Betzenderfer, Walnut Creek; D. A. Grimes and David Martin, Concord; Robert Trouton, El Cerrito; and Miss Mary Durkin, Martinez.

Set Rate Hike Hearings

Hearing on Pacific Gas and Electric Company's petition for a new increase in gas rates will resume January 22 and run through most of March, but a ruling cannot be expected before fall, Ray E. Untereiner, public utilities commissioner, said.

The estimated rate hike will add from 60 to 90 cents per month on the average gas bill of home owners.

Big, bright, beautiful lamps give your rooms a decorator look

There's no missing the new table lamps. They're as big as they are handsome. Interior decorators consider these lamps as furniture... and like furniture, they should be purchased in groups that harmonize in size, in period, in finish. But above all else, use the right size bulb. These tall table lamps need the new three-way sizes: 30-200-230 or 50-200-250 watt. Then, instead of gloom and glare, you have a soft, even illumination that adds new glamour to furniture, fabrics and you!

IT LOOKS COMPLICATED and it is. It's a sketch of that massive three-level interchange now under construction by the state at Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Oakland Boulevard. It will tie together the three legs of the $8 million Walnut Creek Bypass. There is only one interchange larger. It's in Los Angeles. The completion of the bypass and its interchange will break one of the biggest bottlenecks in the East Bay—located at the intersection of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Main Street, Walnut Creek.

B. O. Wilson Will Retire At Term End

County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson will not be a candidate to succeed himself in the 1958 elections, he announced today.

Wilson's present term will expire in January, 1959, bringing to a close more than 26 years of service as county superintendent. He was appointed November 14, 1932 and elected to his first four-year term two years later and each subsequent term thereafter.

Wilson said he had made no definite plan for his retirement. He will continue to make his home at his present residence at 1230 Elmwood Drive, Walnut Creek.

DURING THE TIME of Wilson's regime the county school system has changed from largely rural to chiefly urban and suburban. Enrollment has more than quadrupled, increasing from less than 20,000 to more than 98,000.

The office now pays a salary of $14,500, as established by state law.

Superintendent Wilson has numerous professional affiliations, including Phi Delta Kappa, national education fraternity. He served last year as president of the County and Rural Area Superintendents' Division, National Education Association.

HE IS ALSO ACTIVE in lodge and civic groups, including Masons, Elks, Rotary, Contra Costa County Development Association and others.

Wilson is the senior department head in point of service in Contra Costa County Government. He has also rendered the longest term of service among the current county superintendents of school in California.

Junior College Winter, Spring Courses Outlined

Brochures describing the winter and spring courses for part-time students at East Contra Costa Junior College are available Verle C. Henstrand announced today.

The shorter 10-week courses started this week with registration on Saturday, in the Student Activities Building.

Persons who found it impossible to be present may register during the first two weeks of the sessions, reporting to the same building between 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

HENSTRAND, who is acting assistant dean of instruction in charge of part-time students' classes, said there will be fewer short-unit courses than in the past. This will permit the addition of more mathematics and science courses in the longer 18-week program.

"However," he said, "there will be 17 ten-week classes offered, including two new ones—Creative Writing on Thursday nights, and Business 191, a course in small business management for service station operators on Monday nights."

There will also be continuing courses in industrial instrumentation, aviation, and electricity.

Two sections of beginning clothing construction (Homemaking 130), will be available, one on Monday nights and the other on Thursday nights. An advanced class in tailoring will meet Wednesday nights. A class in home furnishing and decoration is scheduled for Tuesday nights.

AS IN THE PAST, the Secretarial Laboratory will be available Wednesday nights for review of shorthand theory, dictation, transcription, and English review.

Dr. F. I. Marchus Will Seek Post

Dr. Floyd I. Marchus, research director in the office of the Contra Costa County Superintendent of Schools for eight years, today announced his candidacy for the office of County Superintendent.

The announcement comes on the heels of County Superintendent B. O. Wilson's statement that he will not be a candidate for the office he has held for more than 25 years.

Dr. Marchus resides at 1271 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek, previously a resident of the Richmond Union High School District, now lives and has lived in Contra Costa County for 14 years. He and Mrs. Marchus are the parents of four children. One attends a Lafayette Elementary School, two are in Acalanes High School, and one attends the Contra Costa County Junior College. Their ages range from seven to 17.

"I believe in adequate school programs," said Marchus. "I believe also that the educational program should be run in an efficient and business-like manner. I believe my experience and training qualify me to give the citizens of Contra Costa County this kind of service in meeting increasing demands upon the schools."

Drive carefully during the rainy weather—accidents are costly.

Enjoy - MORE POWER in your home!

more electric power can double the fun of living in your home!

Many families today are enjoying their homes only half as much as they should because of skimpy, outdated wiring.

If the picture on your TV flickers or shrinks, if lights dim when your furnace motor or washer starts, if your toast pops up before it's brown, if your iron takes a long time to heat, if your sockets are double-plugged—you need more HOUSEPOWER, and it's urgent if fuses are blowing or circuit breakers tripping.

How much more HOUSEPOWER do you need for real enjoyment of your home, and how much will it cost?

To handle the two dozen to four dozen major and minor electric appliances in a modern American home, you need 100-ampere service with a basic capacity of 24,000 watts. Your home now may have only 30-ampere service, with a basic capacity of 3,600 watts, or 60-ampere service with a basic capacity of 14,500 watts. The cost of bringing your home up to standard modern HOUSEPOWER of 100-ampere service depends on how much wiring you have now, and where it is located.

The cost of adding enough wiring for modern HOUSEPOWER is always a good buy. You can add 100% extra enjoyment for only about 2% extra in the cost of a home under construction. The cost of modernizing wiring in existing homes naturally runs higher, but can be done on convenient terms as low as $5 to $10 per month.

If you are a home owner, or remodeling, or building, call an electrical contractor using qualified electricians, and DOUBLE YOUR HOME ENJOYMENT RIGHT NOW WITH REAL HOUSEPOWER!

LEAGUE PLAY OPENS TONIGHT

Kinghts, Rams, Matadors, Dons Groomed for Opener

Practice basketball games are now a matter of record and from here on it's really play for keeps as starting with tonight's games the league play gets underway.

The spotlight in the opener turns on the Las Lomas gym where the Kinghts host the Diablo Red Devils. The Diablo quint has played top teams in the practice games and is rated by many as the team to beat.

THIS GAME will play before a packed house and will be a decisive one. Diablo has the edge in the odds but games are decided on the court and not out of the realm of possibility for the Kinghts to upset the dope book.

Coach Merrill Callow, Las Lomas mentor, has well laid plans as does Coach Charley Karp of the Devils.

PITTSBURG is another loop favorite and they are expected to open with a pair of twins over Miramonte at the Orinda gym. Too much height and speed plus all around ability should prove to be too big a step for Miramonte starting its first game in league play.

Miramonte is weak on the boards and that's where its strength lies. The Matadors are a scrappy bunch and handle the ball well but lack of height and no seasoned players are major problems for Coach Bob Callen.

BALL CONTROL and sharp shooting are Miramonte's only chances to stay in range. Acalanes plays Pacific at Pacifica and this should prove to be a win for the Dons.

Acalanes has been better on defense than offense and while they don't figure high in scoring, they don't figure to be scored upon much either.

Coach John Phair is the Dons' best punch and with added help could notch a Don win.

PLEASANT HILL hosts Antioch and on the basis of practice records, the Rams are on the short end. The Rams have had trouble with consistency at the hoop and were hit hard by graduations. This is the first time the chips are down and Coach Art Poulin could come up with some surprises.

There are no byes in league play this season as Miramonte enters play to take up the bye date.

All Friday games are night tilts, the Bees open at 7:30.

TUESDAY finds another round of league play on tap with Bees opening at 3:30 p.m.

Pleasant Hill plays at Las Lomas; Pittsburg at Acalanes and Antioch at Miramonte.

Medal Play Won By Mrs. Tanner

Ladies' Day medal play on the Orinda Country Club golf course last Friday had the following results:

Class A — Mrs. A. B. Tanner, 89-12, 77; Mrs. R. F. Hopkins, 93-14, 79; Mrs. F. F. Fee, 94-14, 80.

Class B — Mrs. T. N. Taylor, 100-19, 81; Mrs. Don Watson, 100-17, 83; Mrs. H. S. Worthington, 107-21, 86.

Class C — Mrs. A. L. Brooks, 107-25, 82; Mrs. H. A. Donovan, 111-28, 83; Mrs. J. M. Walker, 121-33, 88.

Bechtel OKs 10-Year Plan of EBMUD

The East Bay Municipal Utility District's large-scale 10-year construction and development program has been approved by the Bechtel Corporation, according to John W. McFarland, EBMUD general manager.

"A preliminary check of the report covering the engineering and economic features of the expansion program planned by EBMUD engineers to meet the area's growing needs for water in the next 10 years indicates that it is entirely feasible," McFarland declared this week.

In a letter transmitting the comprehensive study, J. R. Kiely, Bechtel Corporation senior vice-president, stated:

"WE FIND YOUR 10-year program comprehensive and well planned. The features will be needed essentially as scheduled and sufficient water will be available to justify execution of the program."

Your cost estimates in general provide adequate funds for the proposed work. Financing will be possible without an increase in tax or sales rates.

"We recommend that you proceed as planned, taking cognizance of our few suggestions as to design of certain features, cost allowances and schedule."

Review of the Bechtel Corporation report by utility district engineers is already under way, McFarland stated.

After this step has been taken, the utility district will be in a position to announce the full plans for meeting the area's future water requirements, McFarland concluded.

Don Grapplers Nail Matadors

The Acalanes Dons met the Miramonte Matadors in a wrestling match Friday afternoon with the Dons dropping the Matadors on the mats.

The event took place in the Orinda gym and found the Dons posting a 30-18 win by taking eight matches to the Matadors' four.

TOP MATCH for Miramonte was a fall win by Bob Davis in the 135 pound class. Davis is undefeated in dual competition to date. Complete meet results in the varsity 12 match competition are as follows:

105 pounds — Bob Clark (A) defeated John Drath (M).

114 — Dick Wiseman (A) threw Barden Wilman (M).

122 — Richard Polk (A) threw Bill Maguire (M).

129 — Drever (A) decided Steve Abbott (M).

135 — Bob Davis (M) threw John Hostford (A).

140 — Dick Jenks (A) decided Charley Pfeiffer (M).

147 — Mike Latone (A) threw Bob Hilger (M).

156 — Mike Wilmar (M) threw Jim Holden (A).

177 — Mike McCordle (A) decided Milt Blake (M).

192 — Jim Botto (M) threw Jim Heiser (A).

Heavyweight Bob Farnum (A) decided Bud Boeger (M).

A decision gives a team three points and a fall is five points.

Dons Scalp Clan On Crockett Wood

The Acalanes Dons had the "Indian sign" on the John Swift Indians of Crockett Friday afternoon when they chalked up wins in the Bee and Varsity divisions.

The Don Bees had to come from behind in the final quarter to notch the win while the varsity rolled to a 17-0 first quarter lead and stayed out in front the rest of the way.

COACH DAN Glines' first varsity five scored 17 points in the first quarter and held the opposition scoreless before the second unit took over.

The Dons' pace slowed as they hit eight points in the second period while the Indians went on the war path and ran up 15 points of their own.

It was Acalanes 34-27 at the end of the third quarter with every Don player seeing action.

In the final eight minutes of play the Dons came to life again at the hoop to garner 15 points and stiffen the defensive play as John Swift managed to put but eight points in the scoring column.

SOPHOMORE FORWARD Paul Colin paced the Acalanes lads with 12 points on five field goals and two free throws. Senior guard Dave Bojarsky hit for 11 points.

Dave bagged seven of his points in the opening frame to give the Dons a big lead.

In the Bee game, Acalanes trailed nine points at the end of the third quarter, then put on a scoring spurge for the one point win, 29-28. Steve Lamphere was top scorer for the winners with his nine points.

Important Changes on Grid Now Under Consideration

by ERWIN MATTSON

I see where the football rules committees on the prep and college level are meeting. This means changes in rules, adoption of new ones and clarification of interpretations.

Every year changes are made based largely on recommendations of the coaches received via a questionnaire which is sent out at the conclusion of the season.

Changes Coming for Sure

CHANGES WILL be made—you can depend on that—since if none are made the groups won't feel as though they have done any work.

One thing good that nearly came about several years ago was a uniform code for the college and prep rules such as penalties and infractions. There are several distinct differences now and it results in confusion.

They did come to an agreement several years back but it fell through because one group announced it before another. It's hoped they can get together again soon as a closely related set of rules could benefit all.

Headline Makers

TWO DON grads hit the headlines this week—Don Ferrarese, the classy southpaw pitcher hurled a 6-0 shut out for Lucky Lager in the Abe Rose Winter League. Ferrarese whiffed 14 for the win. He reports to Baltimore next month for spring training.

The other ex-don who made headlines was Norm Van Brocklin who announced he is quitting pro football after nine years.

Norm has had a colorful pro career and led the circuit three years with his passing. More on him next week plus this tip—Don't bet too much he won't be back for a final fling.

Money Makes Big Difference

A rough season just ended but the passing of time will make the big money look mighty good. Van was one of the pro's top paid players.

Wolves Gnaw Miramonte

50-32; 43-41

The Miramonte Bees were smothered by San Ramon 50-32 last Tuesday afternoon but the varsity went into an overtime before losing 43-41.

In losing, they played the overtime and part of the final stanza plus three starters—losing two via the foul route and one on an injury.

SAN RAMON leaped to a 14-6 first quarter lead and made it 20-16 at the half when Miramonte pulled up. In the third quarter the Matadors suffered a blow when Bill Houston fouled out but they outscored San Ramon 15-11 to knot the count at 31-31 at the end of the period.

Each club garnered eight points in the final canto make it 39 all at the end of the regulation time. The Matadors were hurt again when Bob Hudson went out in the fourth period of play as did Dixon Farmer. Hudson went via the personal foul route while Farmer sprained an ankle after making the bucket that tied the game up.

He went for a rebound and turned the ankle when he hit. In the overtime, Miramonte went ahead when Floyd Blaney hit two free throws only to have San Ramon post a pair of free shots to tie it up again 41-41.

MIRAMONTE had the ball with a minute on the clock—worked it and drove in for a shot only to miss. San Ramon recovered, shot down the floor, missed three shots then poured the fourth rebound through the hoop with 10 seconds to go.

Miramonte called time—came back with an out of bounds play that went astray when Floyd Blaney's hook shot skirted the hoop and the buzzer sounded.

Blaney capped scoring honors with 13 points on three field goals and seven free throws while teammate Randy Young hit for 12.

Blaney also came in for commendation for his fine all around play.

OUCH!! 42-34

Knight Armor Hit By Vallejo Shots

The Las Lomas Knights wound up their practice season against Vallejo Tuesday afternoon and it wasn't very a profitable day as they dropped a pair getting trimmed in the Bees 40-30 and losing the varsity encounter 42-34.

The Knights were unable to un-track themselves particularly in the early stages of the game and never did catch up after going behind 14-5 in the opening period.

THE GAME was one of ball control with both clubs working their shots.

Las Lomas outshot the home club from the floor hitting 15-41 for a 38 per cent average while Vallejo hit 12-40 for 30 per cent. On the foul line it was a different story with four for eight and Vallejo 18-26.

The Knights' halftime talk and rest did them some good in the third quarter as they cut Vallejo to a 29-26 lead only to fade in the closing minutes and go down 42-34.

THE KNIGHTS' center, Art Dalby, once again was tops in scoring with 17 (eight field goals and one free throw). He collected a fair nine rebounds.

Dalby was the only Knight in the double digits as next in line was forward Rodger Piller with eight on four field goals.

Dalby, once again was tops in

Grand Slam For Stone's

The Stone's Men's Wear team scored high in all departments in the Tuesday Night Women's Handicap League at the Monument Bowl as the second half of the Winter League got underway.

Gladys Cameron of Stone's turned in the record score of the season, 214; Betty Love shot a 495 series and the team had high total score of 813.

Yellow Cab rolled a 789 game for second high team score in the league, Monument Catering, Stone's and Yellow Cab all took three points from Union Ice.

Martin Brothers and Woodsie Builders rolled an even two and two. Marie Grant of Yellow Cab had a 485 series with a 120 average. Carlene Whitaker of Farr's was awarded the Union Oil plaque for her 209 game which was high for the previous month.

Rams Split Pair on Court With Livermore Hoopsters

The Pleasant Hill Rams lost the Bee game to Livermore Tuesday afternoon by a 33-29 score but won the big one when the varsity outscored the home club 57-14.

The final score only tells part of the tale as the game was close until the late seconds of the third quarter.

THE RAMS took a narrow 10-9 opening quarter lead and left the floor at the half with the game tied up 23-23.

The Rams forged to a 36-30 lead with 15 seconds to go in the third quarter when they banged in three quick field goals as they took advantage of Livermore's mistakes to end the quarter out in front 42-30.

Livermore never did recover and was outscored 15-13 in the final canto to end the game 57-43.

THE STATISTICS showed that the Rams had one of their better days as they outscored Livermore 52-39 and had three players in the double digits as well as shooting a hot 43 per cent from the floor (25 for 58).

Livermore hit for 32 per cent (18 for 55). Ram Center Bill Dutton collected 17 points on eight field goals and a free throw while Sid Maestre had 14 and Bill Locatelli 15.

Dramateurs to Give Workshop Monday Night

The Dramateurs will hold their monthly meeting and will also present a workshop program next Monday night, starting at 8 o'clock in Fellowship Hall, Orinda Community Church.

The workshop program has been planned under the supervision of Diane Davis. "A panorama of scenes" will be enacted, according to James Harris, Dramateur president.

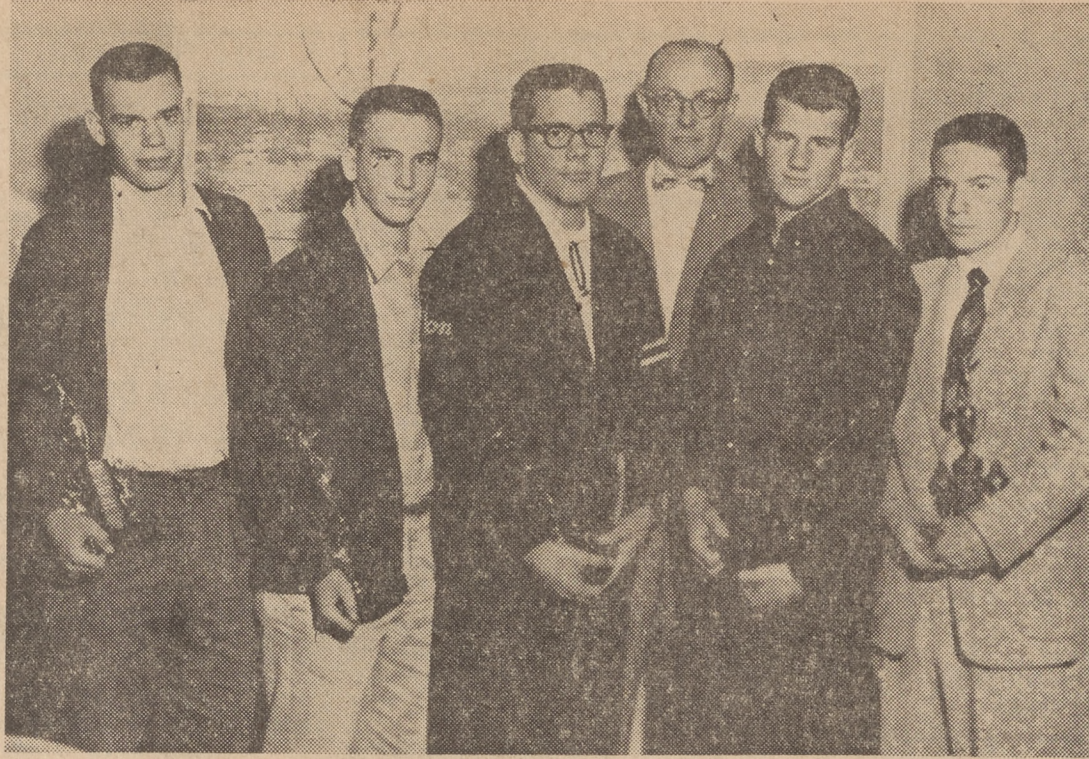

In this presentation will be Betty Moran, Gary Lawrence, Lynn Vaux, Eva Nunn, Louise Withers, Diane Davis and Ray Davis.

In addition, a group of Jack Holder's students from Alhambra Union High School, Martinez, will participate.

There will be no admission charge, Harris points out. The public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

The Dramateurs are preparing for their presentation of "Anniversary Waltz," February 21-22-28 and March 1 at the Berkeley High School Little Theater.

Drive carefully during the rainy weather—accidents are costly.

Something for the Birds ... Food for Thought, Too

By MAXINE MOSSMAN
Mrs. E. J. Antrobus of 1139 First St., Lafayette, has heard and accepted as a fact the old proverb about one swallow not making a spring, but recently she had reason to believe that maybe 500 robins do.
That was the number, she estimated, of the pot-bellied birds who descended en masse on her lawn one cold, foggy morning just as she sat down at the breakfast table to contemplate the fickle nature of the California sun.
When these harbingers of spring landed quite suddenly, Mrs. Antrobus was so startled she spilled her coffee all down the front of her housecoat; but, after recovering from the unexpected surprise, she hustled her daughters, Joy and Gay, out the side door and off to school so as not to disturb her breakfast guests.

SHE ALSO HAD persuaded her husband to take the same route, and he finally departed muttering something about fricasseeed robin for dinner.
Along with the robin came about Cedar Waxwings who did not join the larger group of birds in the main dining room, but rather stayed close together on the sidelines. Apparently these lovely creatures have about the same eating habits as their friends, the robins.
Just as the early morning callers were finishing off the last of the bright orange berries on the Pyracantha shrubs, the garbage collector appeared, scaring them off with the first clatter of cans.

UPON REPORTING the episode to the Audubon Society in Berkeley, Mrs. Antrobus learned that the robins have shown up in abundant numbers this season and that thousands of them flock together at night to roost in Joaquin Miller Park in Oakland.
At this writing our bird-watcher was still shaking her head in disbelief while planning the menu for the evening meal just in case her feathered friends decide to drop in for dinner.
She sort of planned earthworm casserole for the meat course and — let's see now — what to serve for salad and dessert?
Drive carefully during the rainy weather—accidents are costly.

Residents Asked to Send Traffic Questionnaire Now

The Contra Costa Safety Council is eager to have your viewpoint on the subject of Traffic Safety. Through the cooperation of The Sun, printed below are 10 questions pertinent to every Californian.

Your opinion is important!

Please answer these questions carefully. Mark an "X" under YES or NO in the spaces provided. The completed questionnaire should be mailed to the Contra Costa Safety Council, 2030 Mt. Diablo Street, P.O. Box 607, Concord, California.

Your answers will be reviewed and given careful consideration by the Contra Costa Safety Council, the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee, the California Highway Patrol and the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

	Yes	No
1. Do you favor an absolute maximum speed limit of 65 miles per hour?
2. Do you favor compulsory intoxication tests for drivers suspected of operating vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating liquor?
3. Do you support the idea of a traffic school for violators in addition to penalties imposed by the court for those committing more serious hazardous traffic violations and for "repeat" offenders?
4. In your opinion should urban and other heavily traveled highway sections be more adequately lighted for night driving?
5. Should "behind-the-wheel" driver training be compulsory in all high schools?
6. Are you in favor of the use of radar by traffic law enforcement agencies in the control of excessive speeds?
7. Do you believe in more strict traffic law enforcement, including stiffer penalties to apply uniformly in all courts for motorists guilty of accident-causing violations?
8. Do you favor a program to control horsepower and top speed available in motor vehicles?
9. In your opinion should a compulsory motor vehicle inspection program be adopted by the State of California?
10. Do you believe seat belts should be required in automobiles? (Studies reveal that the use of safety belts in motor vehicles reduce the opportunity for driver-passenger injury.)
